

Informal Singing Day

Assuming restrictions are lifted either on June 21st or soon after, and subject to a risk assessment once we know the rules/guidance we have to follow, we're planning an informal Singing Day on the 7th August at Barrington Village Hall.

It will run from 10.30am until 4pm with lots of breaks to allow for what we are sure will be very out-of-condition voices to recover! Long breaks will allow a good deal of socialising, and there may be an opportunity to continue afterwards.

It's open to all current members, those retiring as members and any friends who might be interested in joining us. There won't be a final concert (as we have had in the past), though. It's a "freebie" - there will be no charge for attending.

In the light of the uncertainty over the rules at the time, we are doing as little planning as possible to keep it simple in case we have to cancel at short notice, so it will be a case of "bring your own lunch" although hot drinks will be available and some members may bring cake; more on this nearer the time.

All the music will come from the book we know - the Novello "The Greatest Choral Classics"

If you are not a regular choir member and/or require a copy of the Novello book, please contact a choir member or any of the contacts listed on our web site.
